

Welcome to your 2022/23 Season!

Dear friend,

We are proud to announce the lineup of your Oregon Symphony in 2022/23—a season of luminaries.

In his second season, Music Director David Danzmayr continues to move music forward by broadening our Classical Series. We add Composer-in-Residence Andy Akiho and Artist-in-Residence Xavier Foley to our Creative Alliance. We bring more renowned guest artists like Renée Fleming, Emanuel Ax, and Itzhak Perlman to our stage, as we perform both masterworks and world premieres. In this brochure, you'll discover programs with artists like Pulitzer Prize-winner Tania León and Grammy-nominated Nathalie Joachim. If you're like me, you'll want to hear them all!

Popular music fans will enjoy our upcoming Pops Series, which includes hits from the Beatles and John Williams. For a truly unique movie experience, attend our Popcorn concerts to see blockbuster films on the big screen while your Oregon Symphony performs their scores live.

There's nothing like experiencing live music. It has the power to connect, inspire, and leave audiences with unforgettable memories long after a concert has ended. I hope you'll choose to subscribe today and help us create those special moments with you.

Sincerely,

Scott Showalter
